

TYLER MEDICAL CLINIC

2/14/08	DSR Post
I found my biological father using this site! I discovered that Tyler Medical Clinic provided false information about the donor they used for me.

I just recently started to see if I could find out more about my "other" side. And so, I came across your group. Last year, I contacted the Tyler Clinic and was told they have no records due to a fire a few years back. The email was supposedly, by my Mom's doctor, Dr. Marick. I didn't go any further, because I didn't know how... So, I guess my question is: Are the clinic's required to give us information if we or our parents request it? Is there a certain way we are supposed to ask?? A few weeks ago, I contacted Tyler Clinic again, and still they have not returned my call or email...
